

Looking to join a fast-paced and rewarding career? Come join our team of dedicated and skilled individuals at Jones-Warner Consultants! We are a Southwest Ohio Professional Engineering & Surveying Consulting firm who specializes in services such as, but not limited to, Planning, Surveying, Project Management, Underground Utility Design, Transportation Design, Construction Management, and Field Inspection Services. We pride ourselves in our outstanding customer service, maintaining the highest levels of integrity and quality, as well as our ability to provide exceptional professional services on projects of all sizes and varieties. Apply today and join one of the highest demand careers in the nation!

Civil Engineer (Entry Level)

Responsibilities

- Plan and design Site Development projects, including site layout, grading, storm water management, and utilities
- Work with a multi-discipline team of architects, MEP, and structural engineers on a variety of projects including Higher Education, Retail, Commercial, Industrial, and others.
- Work closely with other technical staff to assist in providing consulting engineering services to architects, national retailers, municipalities, universities, and local development clients.
- Interact daily with project teams in a multi-disciplinary and multi-office environment.

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities

- B.S. in Civil Engineering
- EIT certification
- P.E. license or in the process of obtaining P.E. license
- 2-4 years' experience in site design
- Responsive with a strong sense of urgency and initiative to meet deadlines
- Continuous learning mindset
- Working proficiency of AutoCAD and Civil 3D preferred